Jewish Museum to Display Chagall Exhibit March 6 through June 6

Milwaukee -- The Jewish Museum Milwaukee, located at 1360 N. Prospect Avenue, will open a new exhibit, “The Children of Israel Journeyed: Selections from the Chagall Bible Series,” on March 6, 2011. The exhibit includes twenty-one etchings on Biblical subjects by Marc Chagall, on loan from the Haggerty Museum of Art at Marquette University, which will be displayed in close proximity to the monumental Chagall tapestry which hangs in the Museum atrium, through June 6.

The exhibit opening will be marked with a public event on Sunday, March 6, 12 noon – 4 pm. The event will include tours of the exhibit, refreshments and a musical performance presented in collaboration with Jewish arts organization RUACH at 2 pm. The event is open to the public and is free for Museum members and $5 for non-members.

Jewish Museum Milwaukee, which opened in April, 2008, tells the story of the Jewish people in Milwaukee through interactive exhibits, films, photos and videos. The Museum is a department of the Milwaukee Jewish Federation. Museum hours are Sunday, 12 noon to 4 pm; Monday through Thursday, 10 am to 4 pm; Friday, 10 am to 2 pm; the Museum is closed on Saturday and for Jewish holidays. More information is available on the Jewish Museum Milwaukee website, www.jewishmuseummilwaukee.org, or call (414) 390-5730.
